When we are in school, we exercise regularly. After all, we have physical education lessons. We also have a multi-stage school and to climb some stage you need to overcome many steps. Also in our school, teachers do sports games during recess, and physical minutes in class. And all this so that the children do not shuttle in one place, so that the body does not go numb, but warms up a little. In our school there are many students of athletes who are involved in various sports. And thanks to this we have a sports centre
